

Adaptive infrastructure for Business Continuity Planning (BCP)

During challenging times, find out what technology and tools Telstra can offer to support your business.

Remote Access

Allow remote users to securely connect to corporate network to access Internet, Cloud and SaaS applications

Allowing global remote users access to organisation's private network

Telstra Secure Mobile Access (SMA)

- IPVPN-SMA service with Internet gateways globally connecting users to private network
- Flexible contract model: 3 or 6 months*

Telstra Programmable Network

- Scalable on-demand Internet breakout (near real-time deployment)
- Deployment of Virtual Network Functions (VNFs), such as vFirewall, for better security control
- On-demand technical expertise for assistance in troubleshooting, configuration, implementation and advisory services across network and cloud

Keeping teams working under geographically dispersed conditions

Cisco Webex Service from Telstra (90-days free trial)*

- Full access of Cisco Teams, Meetings and Devices (Try & Buy of 5x DX80 and 1 set of room kit via Cisco) for up to 100 user accounts
- Meeting capacity up to 1,000, including participants and devices

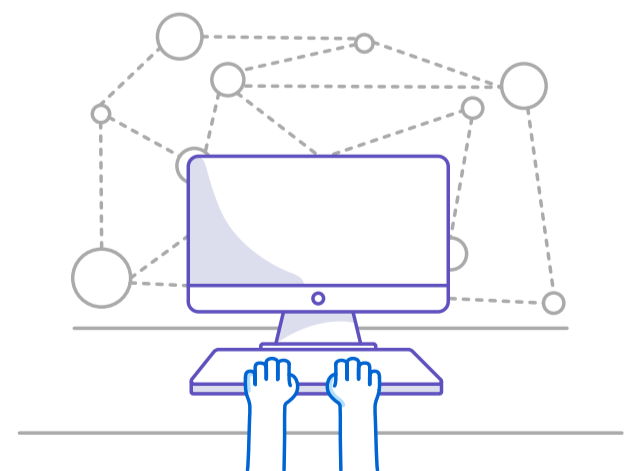

Quick Expansion

Connect remote/ temporary branches with scalable and secure Internet access

Upgrading corporate Internet bandwidth and accessing the Cloud

Telstra Programmable Network

- Burst bandwidth on-demand through online portal to meet high data requirements with pay-as-you-go commercial model
- Create direct private connection to more than 170 cloud providers in 38 global markets via Equinix Cloud Exchange-Fabric integration

*Subject to Terms and Conditions

Contact your Telstra account representative for more details.

Australia

telstra.com.au

International

Sales tg_sales@team.telstra.com Channel Partners partners@team.telstra.com telstraglobal.com